Tar-Vabriga, a place with all the necessary facilities: school, kindergarden, post office, bank, supermarkets and restaurants and only 2 km from the sea there is an autochthonous Istrian stone house, completely renovated!

It consists of two residential units, a semi-detached house.

one unit has an area of 145.25m2, consists of the ground floor, first floor and a high basement.

The living room, kitchen, dining room and bathroom are located on the ground floor.

Upstairs there is one bedroom and a separate dressing room, as well as a large terrace with a view of the place.

Attic, which can be converted into another bedroom or used as an additional space for storing things.

The second house has a size of 95.8 m2, consists of a ground floor and a first floor.

The ground floor is currently unfurnished, except for the bathroom, but there are all the necessary installations for the kitchen, dining room and living room.

An internal stone staircase leads to the first floor where there is another bathroom and two furnished bedrooms.

Both houses are heated by fireplaces and air conditioners.
