K335

In an attractive location, just 5 km from Poreč and the sea, this semi-detached house is divided into three separate residential units, which are neatly divided into condominiums and recorded in the ownership documents.

On the ground floor there is the first residential unit with a total area of 60.59 m². The apartment comes with a covered terrace of 21.19 m², a basement of 7.66 m² and a garden of 306.4 m². The layout includes an entrance hall, bathroom, one bedroom and a spacious living area that includes a kitchen and dining room, with the possibility of simple modification/partitioning and obtaining an additional bedroom.

The first floor is accessed by external stairs, where two more residential units are located. Each has an area of 33.54 m² and uses half of the shared terrace of 18.6 m². Both units are arranged as studio apartments with their own bathrooms, and thanks to the height of the ceiling in the attic there is the option of creating a gallery for additional sleeping space.
